Province of Negros Oriental

Foundation University launched its new academic direction aimed at making academia a leader in instruction, research and community development founded on the UN Sustainable Development Goals, the 4th Industrial Revolution and 21st century learning. A reorganization of the various academic units to reflect clusters of SDGs is underway where applied science, sustainable business, technology, environmental preservation, arts and humanities and global citizenship are given emphasis. It has also made entrepreneurship and social entrepreneurship a requirement for all students to take regardless of their academic program. We partnered with AkadAsia and Philippine Center for Entrepreneurship (GoNegosyo) to infuse an entrepreneurship subject into our different curriculum.

To introduce mentorME and its associated programs, we partnered with make_sense for an event named "FU Dialogue: Entrepreneurship and my future" this coming September 20, 2019 at Foundation University. Our main goal is to promote entrepreneurship by showcasing its impact on economic growth and its role in social innovation. Different stakeholders in our province will also be invited including the LGUs, public and private schools, and other organizations. Entrepreneurs, social innovators, and movers in the community are all invited to inspire the audience. Selected participants can a workshop and training on ideation, entrepreneurship and social innovation.

With this, we are asking permission to invite different Senior High Schools under the jurisdiction of the DepEd Division of Negros Oriental. Slots will be allocated to selected schools for exposure and the actual event.

Attached herewith are the details of the FU Dialogue. If you have questions, you can reach us out at 0975-950-3663.

We are thrilled to make you part of the things that we do. We can learn and grow together for the betterment of the community.

Thank you and God bless.

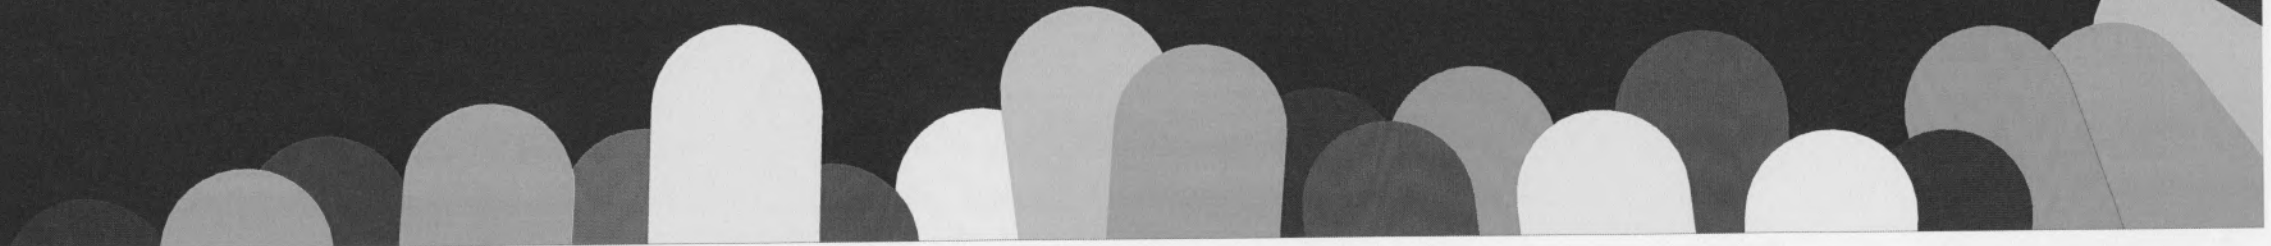

Sincerely,

the makesense workshop: a sensefiction

what is a sensefiction?

a sensefiction is a whole day workshop, usually about 7 hours, to teach individuals how to create their own social enterprise or social campaign from scratch.

it is used to create the first concept of a project to solve a social or environmental problem.

it is designed for individuals who would like to more involved in social entrepreneurship and innovation.
