WILFREDA D. BONGALDS, PHD,
CESO V Schools Division Superintendent
Division of Negros Oriental

Dear Dr. Bongalos,

Maayong Adlaw! May I share with you some good news! There is an artistic performance, which I am sure will interest you, as a mentor, and your students as well. This involves a cultural presentation emanating from passionate artists in Central Visayas, who will share current day advocacies in the language of theatre.

TABOK is a theater network in Central Visayas comprised of established theater groups in Cebu, Bohol, and Negros Oriental, among others.

There are over 20 members in our network, with youth and student theater groups, community theater groups such as Lusad Teatro in Bantayan Island, well-known multisectoral theater groups in the region such as Youth Advocates Through Theater Arts in Dumaguete City, and Kasing Sining in Bohol. Both have national and international track records.

We have one common goal: to promote and celebrate our local heritage and colorful Visayan culture through the performing arts, with prestigious partners such as the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA), Santa Fe Tourism Enterprises Association (SAFETEA), the Guang Ming Institute of Performing Arts in Cebu City. Towards this goal, we hope to get your support, and partnership with us, as well.

Our upcoming inter-regional project is called Sigbin: Stories of the Region. It is a theater production inspired by Philippine mythical creatures to awaken awareness of our indigenous Visayan folklore, and spark interest on contemporary issues involving environmental and cultural matters. This will feature performing groups of the TABOK theater network. We are fortunate to be one of the performance venues on October 6, 2019 Sunday 3:00pm Matinee and 8:00pm Gala at the Silliman University Claire Isabel McGill Luce Auditorium Dumaguete City.

In this light, may we request for your partnership as to inviting the schools within your division to avail of our discounted tickets of P100 for students, with consideration that it is our young minds who will benefit most from this creative and cultural endeavor. Non student tickets are sold for P200. The production is appropriate for an audience that is 10 years old and above. We hope to receive a positive response from you on this request.

Attached in this letter is the poster and synopsis of the production. If you have any questions about our project, please feel free to contact me at 09175032548.

Daghan kaayong salamat!

Sincerely Yours,

CC.
