Dear Mrs. Bongalos,

Greetings of Peace and Love!

First and foremost, we would like to extend our gratitude for your continuing support to St. Paul University Dumaguete's annual development program which is the Junior-Senior High Student Leaders' Congress. This year, the university will take a new turn for our young leaders, engaging them in leadership and character building necessary for youth development that are entrenched upon what a global leader is.

In connection to this, St. Paul University Dumaguete through the Student Affairs Office gladly invites you to its 3rd Junior-Senior High Student Leaders' Congress anchored on the theme "Mainstreaming Leadership through Interculturality: Overcoming Individualism towards Solidarity" which will be held on January 26 – 27, 2019 at St. Paul University Dumaguete Campus.

Moreover, we you also allow the other schools under your district to join the said leadership congress. To confirm their participation, may we have an endorsement letter from the different heads of the schools who are joining the event. Attached herewith are the necessary documents for your convenience.

For questions and clarifications, you may contact us through:
