SUBJECT: The School Sports Enhancement Project: 6th Governor's Back-to-School Sports Competitions

The Provincial Government of Negros Oriental has been conducting the School Sports Enhancement Project since 2013 conducted every 3rd quarter of the calendar year to support the Department of Education's school sports development in consonance with the existing laws and issuances mandating local government units to fully cooperate with the DepEd and to the non-government organization in sports to strengthen citizen engagement in the promotion and development of the physical fitness and sports development. In its 6th year, the Governor's Back-to-School Sports Competition, would like to inform your good office that the NOSDEP-Negros Oriental Sports Development Program will totally handle the management to better accomplish the said project.

In this line, we are requesting for your approval to organize the 6th Governor's Back-to-School Sports Competitions to be held every Saturdays, Sundays and on holidays and to invite all interested school-based teams from the different Schools Divisions all over the Province. The opening of the games will be this coming August 4, 2019 at 7:00AM (Saturday) at Lamberto L. Macias Sports and Cultural Center with a short parade and an opening program right after the parade for the sports competition to commence. Also, I would like to request for the approval from your good office that NOSDEP- Negros Oriental Sports Development Program will handle and manage the said event with your permission and guidance.

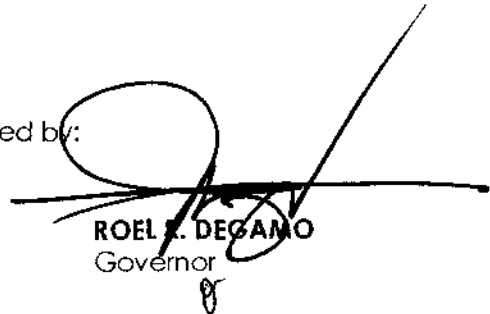

Attached in this letter is the list of the different sporting events with their respective Tournament Managers who will lead in their field of sport during the 6th Governor's Back-to-School Competition 2019.

For your consideration and approval.

Respectfully yours,

FREDDIE F. DE ASIS JR.
