WILFREDA D. BONGALOS, Ph. D., CESO VI
Neg. Oriental Schools Division Superintendent
Department of Education-Negros Oriental Division

Dear Dr. Bongalos:

The College of Education at Silliman University is launching its year-long Centennial celebration from August 2019 to August 2020 with the theme "su.edu@100: Bearing the Fruits of the Spirit through a Century of Christ-centered Transformative Education." This based on historical records as summarized by historian SU VPAA Dr. Earl Jude Paul L. Cleope, which states that:

[t]he College of Education started as a department of Silliman Institute in 1919 offering the High School Teacher's Certificate (HST) and the Bachelor of Science in Education (BSE) curriculum, which was offered in 1920. In 1924, Silliman Institute granted its first Bachelor of Science in Education degrees to six of its graduates... In 1935, a Board of Trustees Action reorganized the Department of Education into a college which was to have both undergraduate and graduate divisions, and designated the elementary and high school as laboratory schools... Dr. Clyde Heflin was appointed as the first dean.... (College of Education Graduate Program Handbook, 2012, p. 6).

In line with this, the College of Education Centennial Celebration Committee (COE-CCC) has planned a series of events aimed at 1) honoring the people that have germinated the College of Education seed and nurtured its growth through its one hundred years of service to the Philippines and beyond, 2) commemorating the significant events during its 100 years of existence, and 3) giving glory to God for the gift of education through the College of Education at Silliman.

Among the events to launch the year-long celebration is the Balik Talent Lecture Series by Department of Education Secretary Leonor Briones on August 24, 2019 at 3:00-6:00 P.M. at the Audio-Visual Theater 1 near the Silliman University Main Library. We are cordially inviting you and the DepEd personnel in your Division to attend the lecture on Public Policies in Education by the Secretary herself. This is one rare occasion for updating on current trends in public service.

Other events highlights are as follows:

August 24, 8AM to 12 N, MPR: PAHINUNGOD: Understanding Autism and ADHD, Mr. Mark Saballa (
August 25, 7PM, Luce Auditorium: PASUNDAYAG: SUCOE Variety Show
August 26, 8-9:30AM, AVT 1: BALIKTALENT LECTURE, Dr. Leonilo B. Oliva
August 26, 7PM – MN, Gymnasium: TAPOK: SUCOE Homecoming Celebration

We also would like to say Daghan kaayong salamat to DepEd Negros Oriental Division for your support. Please come and celebrate with us!

Sincerely,
