WILFREDA D. BONGALOS, Ph.D. CESO V
 Schools Division Superintendent
 Division of Negros Oriental

Dear Madam Bolangos:

Good day!

The College of Mass Communication of Silliman University will celebrate its annual college week this Feb. 18 to 22. For five days, we will hold activities that will celebrate the Mass Communication profession, and showcase our skills as future workers for communication. These activities will be done both inside and outside of the campus.

In this light, we invite three student journalists (preferably the Editor-in-Chief, Associate Editor, and Photojournalist) of the high schools under your jurisdiction to a one-day campus journalism workshop on Feb. 21 at Room 3, College of Mass Communication Building, Silliman University.

The workshop is open to the first 21 students from all over Negros Oriental. In as much as we want to provide transportation, lunch, and workshop supplies, the college's budget will not merit. We can only provide two snacks for the whole day and journalism paraphernalia for the students.

This workshop will be a comprehensive skills-enhancement training that will be beneficial to improve the campus publications of these schools. This is also a manifestation of our mission to give back to the community in the form of service. It will be our great honor to help influence the progress of the journalism culture within our province.

Schools who are interested to join are advised to confirm their attendance on or before February 19, via email (aprillerjuanillo@su.edu.ph) or via mobile (09067858274).

Thank you very much for reading this.
 We look forward to your favorable response regarding this matter.

Respectfully yours,

APRILLE ROSELLE VINCE R. JUANILLO
 Head Organizer
 Campus Journalism Workshop 2019
