Dear Mr. Paulin,

The Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG) Region VII will be conducting a one-day Constitutional Reform Provincial Roadshow on December 4, 2019, starting at 8:00 o'clock in the morning in Dumaguete City, Negros Oriental (AM and PM snacks, as well as lunch will be served).

Venue will be at GROWPOINT DUMAGUETE, Diego DelaVina Road, Claytown, Daro, Dumaguete City (NEAR PALM & PINES and DUMAGUETE CITY WATER DISTRICT)

The said activity will bring down the Constitutional Reform Advocacy campaign in the provinces with the aim of educating, developing and increasing the information awareness level of the voters on the weaknesses and malpractices of the unitary system through evidence-based studies and to gather support for the said advocacy campaign of this administration.

In line with this, we wish to invite you as well as two (2) of your co-employee/staff as audience/participant in the upcoming Constitutional Reform Provincial Roadshow which will be participated by various stakeholders including different National Government Agencies (NGAs), Civil Society Organizations (CSOs), and the Academe Community, which will serve as a platform to showcase our collective aspirations to amend the present constitution.

As such, may we request for the submission of your confirmation through the contact numbers provided below on or before (November 29, 2019). For clarifications and concerns, you may directly coordinate with ARVIN M RICAFORT, Assistant Provincial Coordinator (APC) via telephone numbers 422-2479 or 0916-494-4445 or send us an email at dilg_orneg@yahoo.com

Your presence would serve as an expression of unyielding support to the President's call for a meaningful change for the country.

Truly yours,

DENNIS S. QUIÑONES, CESO V
Provincial Director
