Dr. Wilfreda Bongalos
Dep.Ed Provincial Superintendent
Dumaguete City

Dear Dr. Bongalos:

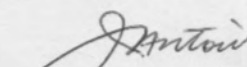

2019 marks the 31st Anniversary of Dumaguete's Sandurot Festival. The creative weaving into the local fabric of colorful threads of different ways, beliefs and lifestyles is a concept we call SANDUROT (to come together). The week-long festivity slated on September 20-29 has human industry and creativity at its heart. It features Street Dancing, Original Dumaguete Music, Local Films, A Capella Competition, a Farmer's Market, Budbud Gabi Cooking Contest, Local Food, Terracotta Sculptures, Traditional Children's Games, Public Lecture-Dance Concerts and Photography Contest, among others.

May we invite you to join us at the opening salvo on September 21, the PAGHIMAMAT – a one-hour program which tells the story of Dumaguete through dance, music and theater. We request you to join us, too, for the Street Dance and Showdown on September 28 which features 15 of the best contingents of our city from the schools and barangays.

PAGHIMAMAT (Get Together)	September 21 4PM	Rizal Blvd (across Allegre)
PASUNDAYAG (Street Dance)	September 28 3PM	stage across the cathedral
PASIGARBO (Showdown)	September 28 5PM	ML Quezon Park stage

Thank you very much. Mag Sandurot na 'ta!

Very truly yours,

Jacqueline V. Antonio
