Dear Mam Bongalos,

Greeting of Peace,

The 1306th Squadron of the Philippine Coast Guard Auxiliary of Negros Oriental is well pleased and honor for the full support of all-the new Auxiliary under DepEd DRMM. Indeed with your knowledge and expertise our squadron is now in full force.

Us we continue doing well in the field, we must also extend to enrich the information and guidelines (needed) to all new auxiliary as part of their requirement. In this matter, the Philippine Coast Guard Auxiliary will be having the Tri - District Conference this coming March 9, 2019, 9:00 am at Mandarin Pearl Hotel in Cebu City.

This Tri-District Conference is one of the requirement of our all members either new or old. Lecture regarding new memorandum and revised manual of PCGA will be discuss in this matter and more. Registration fee of this event is P700.00 peso per person, this include Lunch and Kit only. All participant are required to wear the proper PCGA uniform. For Auxiliary members, Orange T-shirt with PCGA ball cap also the belt with PCGA buckle. All members are plan to be on board the ship (George and Peter) on Friday March 8, 2019 evening trip for early arrival in Cebu City.

We truly appreciate that you're good office will send the 12 new members in the said event as part of their duty and responsibility as a family member the 1306th PCGA Squadron and for them also to understand the importance of being a member of this organization. Next month they will be schedule for Induction as full Pledge member of PCGA on April 6, 2019 at Bethel Guest House.

Looking forward for your favorable response on this matter.

Thank you and God Bless.
